

Commissions - Prices & Guideline, 2018

Hello my lovelies,

I'm happy to announce that I'll take commissions again. To make the process as hassle-free as possible for both of us, I've created this little guide which includes general information, prices, how to order a commission, payment options and how long a commission will take.

Please read all the information before ordering a commission. If you have any questions, send me an email at request@zeichenwut.com

General information

All prices for commissions are for one character only. Additional characters cost extra. Same applies for very elaborate details like embroidery, patterns, jewellery etc.

I'm currently only offering traditional commissions. All commissions are made on high quality paper (bristol paper for pencil and lineart, 300g watercolor paper for color).

Worldwide shipping with tracking is included in the price. You will also receive a high resolution scan via email.

I reserve the right to decline a commission request if I'm uncomfortable with the subject matter or feel that I'm not experienced enough to produce a satisfying result.

Things I will not draw for you: explicit violence/gore, mecha, anthro characters, shota, Lolicon.

The rest is open for debate. Nudity and NSFW themes are alright depending on what shall be depicted.

Prices & Commission sizes

Commission prices are not negotiable. The prices refer to private commissions exclusively. A commercial use of the commission is not allowed. If you want to use the commission commercially, you will have to pay an additional licensing fee depending on the use of the commission.

For every medium you can choose between portrait (headshot), bust or waist up. All commission are without background unless otherwise stated.

How to order a commission

If you want to commission me, the first step is to send me an email. In this mail, you should describe the work I should draw for you in as much detail as possible. Additional reference images are appreciated. I usually reply in a day or two to clarify any details. Is everything in order, I'll send you an invoice for the commission. Half of the commission price has to be paid upfront. The rest is to be paid upon finishing the commission and before delivering. Is the money deposited in my bank or PayPal account, I will start with the commission.

First I will send you 2 to 3 thumbnails from which you can choose your preference. Then I will make a tight sketch for you to review. If you are happy with the result, I will continue to create the finished commission. Additional changes are not possible once the sketch has been approved.

If you have ordered a colored commission, I will send you a digital color sketch for you to approve. Please note that the actual colors might look different than the digital composite. I will start coloring once the color scheme has been approved. Once the commission is completed, the rest of commission price has to be paid. Is the money deposited in my account, I will send you the commission. You will get the tracking-ID of the shipment via email, so that you can see where your order is.

Payment

You have two different options for paying for your commission. I do prefer PayPal though since it is quicker and I can start working on your commission as soon as possible.

For people living in the EU: bank transfer, PayPal

For people in the rest of the world: PayPal only

How long will it take until the commission is finished?

Depending on the size of your commission it can take up to two weeks for me to finish your order. I'll let you know if there's any delay due to circumstances that I can't influence (sickness, family emergency etc.). Shipping will take another 1 to 4 weeks depending on your location. I'll send you the tracking ID of the postal service as soon as your order is dispatched.

Further use of the commission

I reserve the right to use the ordered commission in accordance with the German Copyright Act. This is why I can offer illustrations for private use for a low price.

If you don't wish that I use the commission otherwise, you will have to pay an additional fee to get the entire rights of using the commission (usually six times of the commission cost). Please contact me, if you want to own the exclusive rights of your commission and let me know about it in your ordering mail.
